"Starting All Over"

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, welcome to tonight's play. B.A.D.S. tries to ensure that we give you a diversity of dramatic experiences. You last enjoyed our murder mystery with hot pot supper which stretched your investigative powers.

"Starting All Over" gives the company the rare experience of ensemble playing, and together with you, the audience, the opportunity of exploring the issues of loss and change through a number of engaging characters. The themes uncovered will continue to reverberate with you long after this evening's entertainment. John Peel is an impressive playwright and another world premiere in Burton is to be welcomed.

B.A.D.S. has entertained this village for over 60 years and hopefully will continue for many years to come. Whilst we value your support as an audience, we are hoping that some of you may be encouraged to help us to put the plays on. It really is good fun.

Alison Murphy

Chair, B.A.D.S.
